

ARTS FOR LIFE – Theatre Recognition Guild

2010 Judge Application Information Sheet

The ARTS FOR LIFE Theatre Recognition Guild is a separate committee comprised of at least twenty members whose duty it is to review every musical theater production produced by Metro-St. Louis Community Theater groups during a calendar year for the purpose of nominating and voting “Best Performances” and “Best Achievements” in those productions.

This committee shall be comprised of individuals who are not members of any Community Theater group as well as representatives from at least six Metro-St. Louis Community Theater groups. Community Theater groups representation will rotate each year, repeating at least every three years. At-Large membership qualifications may range from theater critic, drama teacher, voice teacher, professional musician, and professional performer to anyone with an avid interest in theater.

- We are currently looking for a pool of 50 judges. 10 judges will be selected at random to view each show produced.
- Judges will be asked to serve 1 calendar year term beginning January 2010.
- Each Judge selected will fill out a ballot covering the 22 award categories. The ballot can be filled out online or mailed to an independent auditor.
- Each judge will be given 1 complimentary ticket to the shows they are assigned to review. We ask that you respect the requests of the theatre group in which you are reviewing.
- Each judge will be asked to review approximately 10 or more shows throughout the year of service. Because judges are chosen at random some months may be busier than others. You may see one show one month and 3 the next.
- This is a non-compensated position.
- Judging assignments will be assigned on a date to be announced soon. Any show that is announced after the meeting date will be assigned at least 2 weeks prior to the shows opening night.
